About Us

ACHR is an automated manufacturer specialized in research and development, manufacturing and distribution of automotive electric fuel pumps, modules, as well as oxygen sensors. Since the establishment in 1994, with 22 years of experience in supplying both aftermarket and OEM in automotive industry, ACHR has gained its leading position in serving the domestic fuel pump market. ACHR has a strong research and development team with 86 engineers, holds 96 patents. ACHR is currently certified with ISO/TS 16949, ISO 9001, ISO 14001, OHSAS 18001 and CE standards. In addition, ACHR was the drafter who established the Electric Fuel Pump National Standards in China.

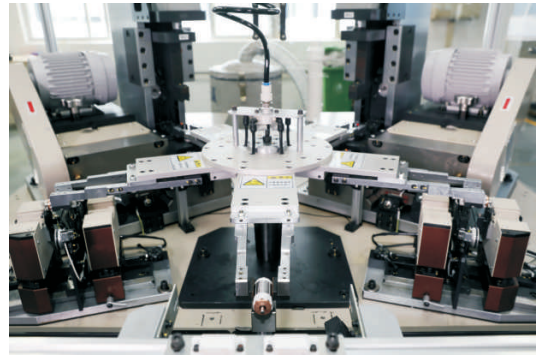

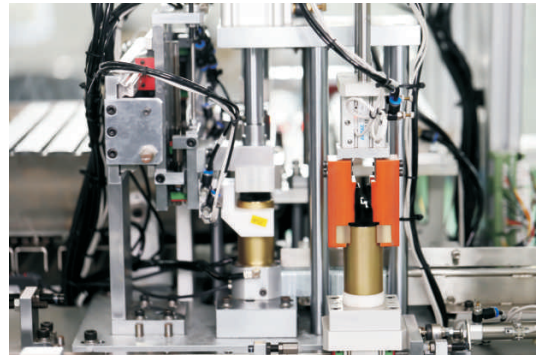

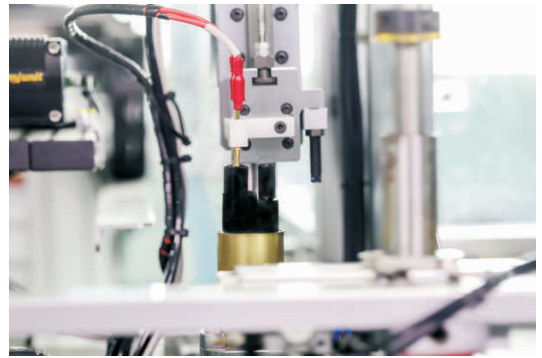

With more than 1300 SKUs of fuel pump and assembly, ACHR's product line has a comprehensive coverage for both domestic and import applications. Our manufacturing capacity has reached 26,200pcs per day with newly established automated manufacturing system. We currently have accomplished the automated manufacturing process for 90% of the pump components including pump shell and pump cover production. Currently, ACHR is making itself towards the fourth industrial revolution – Industrial 4.0. ACHR strictly follows the TS16949 process for any new product development and tests under its lean manufacturing and management systems.

ACHR is fully committed to the business philosophy of "Customer satisfaction is our ultimate goal". Relying on the endeavor of each one of our employees, as well as our lean manufacturing and management systems, ACHR is pursuing a mutual benefit and win-win solution with every of its customers, with its consistent optimized products and services. We firmly believe that ACHR will reach a higher level in the near future with its rapid growth.

ACHR Facility

WE ARE AN AUTOMATED FACTORY

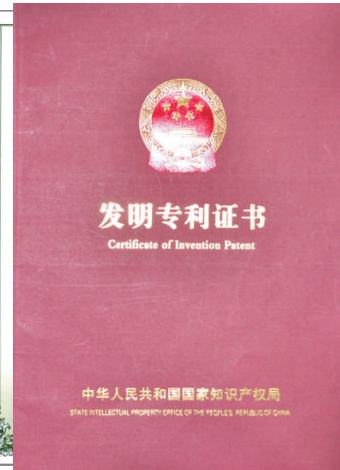

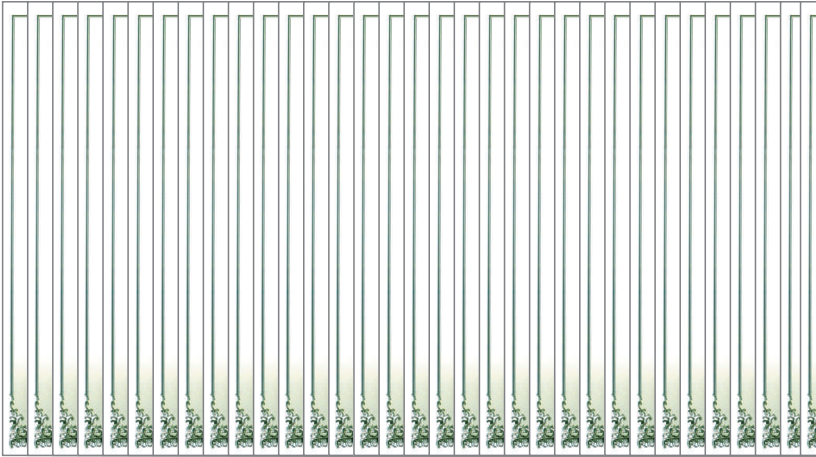

- 24 Full-automation Precision CNC Lathe by Robot
- 25 Automatic Plastic Injection Machine by Robot
- 7 Automatic Armature Assembly Lines
- 2 Key Components/Process Automatic Assembly Lines
- 39 Assembly Lines With Online Test Machine
- Fully Automatic Fuel Pump Assembly Lines --- First-innovated in fuel pump industry.

ACHR FUEL PUMPS

CUSTOMER SATISFACTION IS OUR ULTIMATE GOAL.

With more than 96 patents, ACHR devoted to spare our customer from involving into any patent infringement trouble. What we always keep in mind is that it's our responsibility to appraise the products before selling to our customers or getting into aftermarket.
